CLEANING AND PRESSING

Let us do your cleaning and pressing. We are well equipped for doing your cleaning and pressing. We French Dry Clean your clothes. We do not put them in water. Your clothes will be revived and the new appearance will be restored. This work is all done by machinery. There is no danger of fading your clothes by the French Dry Cleaning process. Our new steam pressing machine is right up-to-date.

A garment that passes through our Steam Presser is disinfeeted, as no germ or microbe can exist under the temperature of the dry steam we inject. At the same time it removes all odor that might be in them, takes away the grimy appearance, raises the nap, revives the color, and imparts to the garment that freshness desired by all dressers. No danger of burning or scorching the garment by the Dry Steam process, while a higher degree of heat is applied to the garment than can be applied with a sad iron, without danger of burning or injuring the fabric. Give us a trial.

OBITUARY.

On Friday afternoon, April 30, the mortal remains of Henry Rodieck were laid to rest amid the tears and lamentations of a host of sorrowing relatives and friends. Just in the O, long, long days of gladness that lived bloom of youth, this noble man, so full of courage and ambition, the summons of death came all too soon. Nobly he performed life's duties and in the presence of death deeds of kindness were done and loving words spoken. All that is grand, noble, beautiful and good is secured from the mouldering touch of time. No generous impulse of the human heart but shall survive thy resting place.
